

Possible outcomes	Progression implications	Next steps	What does this mean for you?
Passed all Year 1 modules	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> Students can continue with Year 2 studies if already commenced Students can now register to commence Year 2 if not done so 	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> No change Students studying with a partner college will need to register for Year 2 commencing September 2021 under the Year 2 new syllabus 	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> Students can wait and commence Year 2 in September 2021 with their partner college under the new syllabus and sit exams in June 2022 Or Given the special circumstances of the year, students can choose to register for January 2021 under the current Year 2 syllabus with ATI Online or Tallaght Training Centre. This would mean that you would not continue your studies with your original partner college. Exams are held in August 2021 *
Law and Ethics module is outstanding All other modules are passed	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> Students can continue with Year 2 studies if commenced but will need to sit the new syllabus Business Law module exam in June 2021 (Business Law replaces Law and Ethics under the new syllabus) Students can now register to commence Year 2 studies if not already done so and must also sit Business Law in June 2021 	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> Students can book their Business Law for June and register with their college to study the module, catching-up using ATI's virtual lectures. You will be required to purchase the new syllabus text book for self-study Students studying with a partner college will need to register for Year 2 commencing in September 2021 under the new syllabus. For sitting 	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> Liaise with your partner college to join Business Law and book your exam for June 2021 via your TouchPoint Students can wait and commence Year 2 in September 2021 with their partner college under the new syllabus and sit exams in June 2022 Or Given the special circumstances of the year, students can choose to register

		Business Law, please see point 1 above	for January 2021 under the current Year 2 syllabus with ATI Online or Tallaght Training Centre. This would mean that you would not continue your studies with your original partner college. Exams are held in August 2021. Students also have the option of studying the Year 1 Business Law module with ATI Online starting January 2021. This would mean you would study 5 modules in 2021, sitting exams in August.
Business Management module is outstanding All other modules are passed	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Students can continue with Year 2 studies if commenced but will need to sit the new syllabus Business Management module exam in June 2021 2. Students can now register to commence Year 2 studies if not already done so and must also sit Business Management in June 2021 	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Students can book their Business Management for June and register with their college to study the module, catching-up using ATI's virtual lectures. You will be required to purchase the new syllabus text book for self-study 2. Students studying with a partner college will need to register for Year 2 commencing in September 2021 under the new syllabus. For sitting Business Management, please see point 1 above 	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Liaise with your partner college to join Business Management and book your exam for June 2021 via your TouchPoint 2. Students can wait and commence Year 2 in September 2021 with their partner college under the new syllabus and sit exams in June 2022 Or Given the special circumstances of the year, students can choose to register for January 2021 under the current Year 2 syllabus with ATI Online or Tallaght Training Centre. This would mean that you would not continue your studies with your original partner college. Exams are held in August 2021. Students also have the option of studying the Year 1 Business Law module with ATI Online starting January 2021. This would mean you would study 5 modules in 2021, sitting exams in August.

Modules in Tax and /or Financial Accounting is outstanding	Students are unable to progress to Year 2 until exam(s) are passed	Students are required to resit exam(s) in June 2021 under the new syllabus	Register with your college to repeat module(s), catching-up using ATI's virtual lectures and tutorials. You will be required to purchase the new syllabus text book for self-study

*If you choose to take up your studies this January, then please ensure to do the following:

1. Notify your current partner college that you will not be continuing your studies with them in September 2021
2. If you are looking to apply to study with Tallaght Training Centre this January, you can find out more information here
3. If you are looking to register to study with ATI Online this January, please email Vasantha Yeruva, ATI Online Programme Manager: VYeruva@accountingtechniciansireland.ie